

CELEBRATING MULTICULTURALISM - ONE MORSEL AT A TIME!

Please join a festive extravaganza celebrating a range of cultures through food, music, and video. Attendees will be invited to share cultural traditions, rituals and personal perspectives relating to their own ethnic backgrounds and food that is common to their cultures. Using Geert Hofstede's 5 Dimensions Model, attendees will be able to apply a theoretical framework to explore a common dimension of culture: the family meal.

When: Thursday July 21st

Where: 11600 Nairn Road, Silver Spring, MD 20902

Time: 6:30p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Who: ISPI Potomac Chapter Members, SIETAR DC Members, ASTD Diversity SIG Members, NOVA SHRM Members, and Returned Peace Corps Volunteers

RSVP: “Register for the July Program” on www.ispi-dc.org

This is a potluck event– please bring a dish or beverage you will be offering and share with other how it is typically served or enjoyed.

Please feel free to bring your music playlists that can be broadcast using ipods or iPhones and links to videos that can be accessed through the web.

Please send questions to Veronica Adams at adams@ridingthewave.net or at 202-340-0488 (cell number)